Gifted Hilton Head is delighted to be celebrating it's 9th year on the island. After owning 2 stores in Pittsburgh, owner Meredith Taylor fulfilled her dream of owning a store in the Lowcountry, and opened the Hilton Head location in 2011. The one stop shop for every kind of gift quickly became an island favorite, winning Favorite New Business in 2011 and Favorite Gift Shop every year since then. Meredith attribute the success of the store to several things. Gifted carries a really wide selection of gifts for any occasion or any person... hostess, wedding, baby, girlfriend, and all the gifts are unique, well priced and superior quality. She has created many custom Hilton Head items found only at Gifted, and also has top brands like Uno de 50, Ronaldo, and John Medeiros jewelry, Spartina and Baggallini handbags, Thymes bath and body, Nora Fleming tableware, and so much more...the store is literally so full of great merchandise you can't take it all in with one visit.
